JCI MICHIGAN OVERVIEW

JCI Mission

To provide development opportunities that empower young people to create positive change.

JCI Vision

To be the leading global network of young active citizens.

JCI's Core Philosophy is to:

Inspire confidence, unite communities,
enhance equal opportunities, establish justice,
embrace cultural diversity, and create sustainable impact.

JCI Michigan Vision

To become the young person's leadership organization of choice in Michigan by providing chapters with the resources and development they need to further a lasting legacy in their local communities.

JCI Michigan Purpose

Promote active participation in Local Chapter programs and projects designed to improve their community, state, and nation; Provide young persons an opportunity to develop leadership skills, and an opportunity for personal development and achievement; Encourage intelligent participation by its members in the affairs of their community, state, and nation; Provide for expansion and growth of JCI Michigan; and Coordinate the activities of JCI Global, JCI USA, and JCI Michigan.

JCI Areas of Opportunity

- International Cooperation through exciting and innovative events,
- Individual Development through leadership and personal development training,
- Business and Entrepreneurship through flagship programs,
- Community Impact through projects anchored in helping sustain and rebuild local economies, motivate the workforce through youth entrepreneurship and promote mental health awareness.

Team 102 SUCCESS

To be assessed at Board Retreat 1/10/2026

How are we defining success for this year?

- Increased attendance at state events
- Cohesive working Board of Directors
- Other Chapter Members attending different chapter events outside of BOD
- No Chapter Folders
- Increase in local award submissions
- Creation and execution of State Fundraiser
- Member Growth - in numbers
- Improvement in Senate relationship

Where do we want our organization to be in 5 years?

- Consistent Contested Elections at the local and state levels
- New Board of Director faces
- Junior Jaycee Programming
- Current BOD members moving up
- Defined Priority Project

- Financially Sustainable
- 2 New chapters; 1 may be at-large/virtual
- Formalized non-jaycee partnerships

Where do we want our organization to be in 10 years?

- At least 1 National President from JCI MI
- At least 1 International Officer from JCI MI
- Double in Membership
- Financially sustainable to the excess of “fun money”

Name	Goal
Jeri Behrmann	Attend both national conferences to provide institutional knowledge to SP. Jessica.
Noel Groom	Connect MI Senate members with chapters through web interface that maps senators in relation to nearby chapters.
Brandon Diller	Create a training ecosystem that provides certified trainings to our members that are externally recognized. Examples/Ideas: 1. Project Management 2. Six Sigma 3. OSHA 4. First Aid 5. Diversity, Equity, Inclusions, Belonging.
Emily Weber	1. Don't miss any state conferences. 2. Attend one National JCI event. 3. Be more confident in Discord, Canva, and other communications team programs/technology.

JCI Michigan	Mentor someone to be COS next year.
Amanda Wingelaar	Post regularly to social media and boost visibility, engagement, and traffic to encourage new member activity/info/help. Share info with members for awareness and involvement.
Jessica Mancini	Plan at least 1 state wide social to get members involved while recruiting new members.
Sam Krotz	Host 1 district social every 3 months.
Ashley Devers	1. Junior Jaycees start a project to involve youth. 2. Get growth chapters in my district A to be involved in submissions & state conferences.
Tyler Roberts	To acknowledge all GlueUp issues that were brought to my attention within 24/hours unless I am unreachable.
Bobbie Jo Call	To successfully know my role by the end of the year. To feel confident in my role and to successfully make or build others up for success. To be available to others and to hold myself accountable to my duties and ensure I am doing my duties.
Ray Russell Jr.	1. To be more accountable. 2. Look at discord more. 3. Stay up to date on what is happening.
Krista Graverson	Fall conference: 1. Send out a press release to WoodTV8 for OYM. 2. Increase attendance by 10 3. Recruit 1 hope college student.
Karen Kekelik	Leave with an in-depth and robust understanding of non-profit law that produces positive change (and) or efficiency.
Alecia Sherwood	1. Help local chapters see their programming potential. 2. Go to more state and other chapter events.
Corey Rickett	1. Connect with every local president. 2. Get a golf outing started as the annual fundraiser.
Michelle McGrann	Encourage 5 members to take a step up to a higher level: local --> state state --> national national -- international
Lee DeKievit	Conference template update to help systemize the future conference finances.
Sandi Brinks	Find someone to take my role for 2027 and show up to all meetings to take notes. (Same with local chapter - get local 2027 board together that isn't the "same" people.)
DeMarcus Evans	Revive the Junior Jaycees starting with my chapter! (Please email any documentation to help with this goal)

Kayleigh Gratz	1. Support Members. 2. Make Foundation more tolerable. 3. Make USA Awards better. 4. TOYA/OYM 5. Buy a small herd of normande/brown swiss cattle. 6. Have a Jaycee history documentary started.
DJ Campbell	Travel to as many events across the District/State as possible.
Jessica Anderson	Travel to each chapter at least once Grow as a state Have someone run in elections in each elected position for 2027 Start a State Fundraiser that can be sustainable
Jake Anderson	Proactively think about the little things so I'm not even asked for those tasks
Ryan Watkins	I want to learn how to properly write and review chapter plans and single project entries.
Brenna LaForge	To make sure the brand transition is smooth and seamless- including graphics, swag, and printed materials.

JCI USA RESOURCES

When thinking through your State events, projects, and programs, you can leverage the JCI USA and JCI and JCI USA initiatives that are already established.

Area	Program/Description & Resources
Marketing	The JCI USA Brand Guidelines give an overview of how we communicate our brand, which goes far beyond just the color scheme. This document also includes templates for social media and other useful links (see last page of the guide for more information).
USJC Foundation	Did you know that as a chapter of JCI USA, you're eligible for grants from the US Jaycee Foundation? You can find more information on their website, including a form for applying for grants.

Area of Focus	Program/Description
Individual Development	This area provides an opportunity for individual members to realize their personal potential through development programs. While there is an Area of Opportunity for individual development, every single activity in the Junior Chamber organization is oriented to develop the potential and skills of the individual member. Active participation in activities in any of the Areas will give the member the opportunity to enhance his or her potential. Programs: Passport to Civic Leadership CLC JCI USA Young Leaders Lab Skills Development Competitions
	This area develops the sensitivity of individual members to societal

Community Impact	problems, and knowledge of community dynamics in solving these problems, through actual experience. Like all citizens, Junior Chamber members have a stake in the betterment of their communities. Programs: One Year to Lead Offerings North American Academy JCI USA Ten Outstanding Young Americans TOYA Program
Business & Entrepreneurship	This area develops business and entrepreneurship skills for members. Almost all members of JCI USA are involved in some business activity - working on their own, for an-other company, or preparing to open their own business. Programs: Creative Young Entrepreneur (CYE) JCI Masterclasses Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) JCI and BNI Partnership
International Cooperation	This area provides an opportunity for individual members to contribute to the development of goodwill, under-standing, and cooperation among all peoples. Programming in this area would encompass all projects and programs that enhance a member's knowledge of different cultures and countries around the world. Programs:
